

ConfiCasa Mortgage International Opens a Division in Manzanillo, Mexico Continuing its Aggressive Expansion

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--ConfiCasa Mortgage International, LLC continues to aggressively expand its on-the-ground office presence throughout the resort areas of Mexico with the recently announced opening of a division in Manzanillo, Mexico. Located in Las Brisas, at Av. Lazaro, Cardenas 455A, the Manzanillo division opening is part of the Company's aggressive strategy to meet the increasing demand for cross-border Mexico mortgage loans in several strategic Mexico resort markets. Over the last twelve months, ConfiCasa has opened additional divisions in Cabo San Lucas and Puerto Vallarta with near-term plans to open a division in Cancun/Playa del Carmen, making ConfiCasa one of the only cross-border mortgage lenders with offices spanning Mexico.

The Manzanillo division will be led by Jim Lehman. Jim holds a graduate degree in business management, with a focus on foreign trade. Before moving to Manzanillo, Jim lived in Europe and Central America, and traveled extensively in Africa, Latin America, Europe and the Middle East for business development. Jim's global experience coupled with a strong real estate management background, adds a unique and fresh perspective to ConfiCasa's clients; U.S. and Canadians purchasing Mexico real estate for use as a second home or a primary residence upon retirement.

According to Matthew A. Miller, ConfiCasa's President and CEO, the Company continues to see strong demand for its Mexico loan products, despite the U.S. and global economic turmoil. In fact, the turmoil has boosted demand as buyers (who in prior years had first looked to purchase Mexico real estate with cash) are now looking to hold onto their cash by obtaining an affordable cross-border Mexico mortgage through ConfiCasa. Further, as ConfiCasa's loan products become more affordable and the entire Mexico mortgage process continues to become quicker and smoother, buyers are increasingly looking for financing. To help capture this demand, ConfiCasa is excited to continue to identify strong but untapped markets such as Manzanillo.
